

Council for British Research in the Levant

CBRL MASTER'S DISSERTATION PRIZE NOMINATION FORM 2022

To be completed by the nominating University Department

Nominating department & university: (name & address of department)
Departmental contact: (individual to contact)
NAME OF STUDENT: (dissertation author)
Student degree title:
Student contact details: (email which will be valid after graduation, and postal address)
Dissertation title:
Which CBRL prize nominated for: (please check one box)	CBRL prize for final-year master's dissertation relating to Levantine archaeology or history <input type="checkbox"/> CBRL prize for final-year master's dissertation relating to Contemporary Levantine studies <input type="checkbox"/>
Name of nominating supervisor / examiner:
Case for nomination, to be made by supervisor or examiner: (Please explain briefly the original contribution made by the dissertation, why it is considered best in subject area, and which major debates it addresses. *regulations prohibit examination reports to be used for this purpose).

PLEASE remember to inform the student that their dissertation has been nominated for this prize. PLEASE return this form along with a pdf of the nominated dissertation to: info@cbri.ac.uk by 31st December 2022.

For further information please contact info@cbri.ac.uk